U.S. Steel Boss Wounds Self With Knife; Condition 'Good'

HYANNIS, Mass. (AP)—Walter F. Munford, president of the strikebound U.S. Steel Co., apparently wounded himself with a knife while in a state of fatigue and nervous exhaustion, a hospital administrator reported today.

Gerald A. Ouellette, administrator of the Cape Cod Hospital, to which Munford was brought in serious condition Wednesday, made the announcement.

Munford, 59, was admitted with a then unexplained knife wound in his abdomen.

The hospital reported Munford had a good night and described his condition today as "satisfactory."

Ouellette issued this statement: "Mr. Munford has been under the care of his personal physician for the past few weeks suffering from fatigue and nervous exhaustion. The day before yesterday Dr. O'Connor (Robert B.) and Harvey N. Jordan, executive vice president of U.S. Steel, visited Mr. and Mrs. Munford as overnight guests.

"During yesterday morning while getting ready to go with Mrs. Munford to Boston to arrange for further treatment he apparently wounded himself with a knife."

"He was immediately taken to the Cape Cod Hospital where the wound was repaired. His condition post-operatively was satisfactory. Today his progress continues to be good."

As the district attorney in charge of Barnstable County began an investigation, it was learned that the injury to the steel executive remained undisclosed until nine hours after Munford's admission to the hospital.

The circumstances of the stabbing remained a mystery pending sufficient improvement in his condition to permit questioning.

Dist. Atty. Edmund Dinis said his aides hope to question the 59-year-old executive some time today.

Dinis refused to answer newsmen's questions about Munford's injury other than it was inflicted with a kitchen knife.

Authorities impounded a five-inch knife they found in the lavish Munford summer home in Chatham.

Gunmoll Sought In Cleveland Robbery Try

Female Impersonator Freed by Police in Weird Bank Stickup

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Police today searched for the woman companion of the holdup man who committed suicide when his robbery plan failed.

A man who said he worked as a female impersonator told police he was the robber's companion, but police, after checking the man's story said it appeared he was not involved.

The man, identified as Harry F. Dunlap, 36, of Cleveland, had been arrested after allegedly fleeing from a taxicab without paying a bill.

The holdup man's companion had been described as a woman with "mousey blonde" hair and wearing a blue gabardine suit and sloppy black shoes. The hair looked suspiciously like a wig.

The "woman" carried a hat box and a red bag which contained a small automatic pistol. When last seen, she was driving a rented car toward the branch bank where the robbery was supposed to happen.

Police quoted him as saying he had been under the influence of narcotics and unable to remember details.

They said he remembered vaguely being with the holdup man Wednesday morning when the manager of the west side bank was taken from his home by force and his family threatened with a fake time bomb.

Police said the man was shown a picture and said he knew the odd little holdup man who died in the bank after exchanging gunfire with some 200 police and FBI agents.

The little man wore a blond wig too, over his balding head. The .45 caliber slug with which he finished his career—when he saw the police were closing in with guns and tear gas—knocked the wig askew.

When they laid him on the table at the morgue, they found he measured only 5 feet 4, and there were elevator shoes on his feet. He had shaved the hair off his body. Under his gray slacks he wore red trunks.

The fingerprints told his story. He was William Ansel, 30, last known address Indianapolis, who had been convicted of burglary, assault to kill and robbery in several cities.

They found a smeary paper containing a plan of action, aimed at a Lorain Ave. branch of the Cleveland Trust Co., with a Detroit Ave. branch as second choice.

The plan began with the woman's help. The pair got into the house of Herbert Fox, 51, manager of the Lorain Avenue branch by asking to use the telephone.

They said they had car trouble. They tied up Fox' wife and two daughters, who later gave the only available description of the woman. But where a gang would have left one or two men to guard the

U.S. Moon Shot Rocket Fizzles

Big Atlas Explodes On Launching Pad

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—An Atlas-Able rocket being readied for a U.S. shot at the moon exploded on its pad during a test of its engines today.

Flames spurted from the base of the towering rocket as the countdown reached zero in the static engine test. Suddenly the missile erupted in a flash of fire.

A mass of boiling flames and black smoke engulfed the launching pad for more than a minute. None of the approximately 40 members of the test crew in the blockhouse 50 yards away was hurt.

The Air Force issued this statement shortly after the explosion: "An Atlas-Able missile exploded on the launch pad this morning during a static test at the Atlantic missile range. The missile was being prepared for a space probe early next month. No personnel were injured. The cause of the explosion is being investigated by the Air Force."

The Atlas-Able was to have been launched sometime between Oct. 3 and 6 when the moon was to be at its closest point to the earth.

The shot would have been an attempt to put a 735-pound satellite in orbit about the moon.

It is doubtful that the United States can ready another Atlas-Able rocket in time for an early October launching. This means it will be at least early November before such a launching can be attempted.

The explosion of the more than 100-foot tall rocket was a bitter blow to U.S. hopes for leveling the moon score with the Russians. Earlier this month the Soviets reached a spectacular space feat by hitting the moon with one of their big rockets.

Anesthetic Blast Is Fatal to Patient

BRADFORD, Pa. (AP)—A woman patient died on the operating table at Bradford Hospital Wednesday after absorbing most of the force of an anesthetic explosion inside her mouth.

Hospital administrator Robert Cole said a volatile anesthetic exploded in its container while Doris Wolford was undergoing surgery.

Cole said the force of the blast traveled through a tube and into Mrs. Wolford's mouth.

He theorized that a spark from one of the motors in the room may have ignited the anesthetic.

U.S. Life Expectancy Due To Grow Longer

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (AP)—The United States will have a population in 1975 of 210 to 230 million people, and a child born then in this country may have a life expectancy of 80 years.

This was foreseen Wednesday night in a talk by Dr. John J. Hanlon, Philadelphia's director of public health services, to the North Carolina Academy of Preventive Medicine.

Disarmament Inspections Seen Possible

Soviet Chief Returns To Washington after Cross-Country Tour

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. capital awaited the return of Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev today amid new hopes that he had relaxed his previously firm stand against disarmament controls.

The Soviet leader flew back here from Pittsburgh where he had inspected the big machines used by American steel mills. It was the last stop in a cross-country tour prior to the main business of his American mission—talks with President Eisenhower on world tensions.

On the matter of disarmament, Khrushchev was reported to have expressed confidence that international inspection controls could be worked out.

Adlai Stevenson, the 1952-56 Democratic presidential candidate, said Khrushchev told him that in Coon River, Iowa, Wednesday.

Stevenson said he believes Khrushchev's position on disarmament has changed. In the past, the Soviets have resisted any idea of inspection to enforce any disarmament agreement. The United States has insisted on such safeguards to prevent cheating.

Khrushchev arrived in Pittsburgh looking tired.

But when he got to the Mesta Machinery Co., his spirits seemed to pick up.

Khrushchev repeatedly discussed trade, then, as if to prove how ready he is to do some swapping, this took place:

As Khrushchev was greeting workers at the Mesta plant, one of them, Kenneth Jackey, offered him a five-for-39-cents cigar.

Khrushchev gratefully accepted it, and whipped off his wrist watch and gave it to Jackey. Soviet officials said the watch is worth between $25 and $40.

As he toured the big Mesta plant, Khrushchev admired the big machinery that is used to equip steel mills. Repeatedly he said:

"Let's buy it. Let's sign now."

"Sure," replied his escort, company Vice President W. W. Powell.

Nearly all the big machinery Khrushchev saw has been embargoed from shipment to Russia because of its war potential.

This city has many who are of Hungarian, Polish or Slovak origin. Even before Khrushchev hit town demonstrators were waving signs that carried such legends as:

"Butcher of Budapest," "Killer of American pilots" and "Remember 1776 with George Washington and 1956 Hungary with Nikita Khrushchev."

Security officials, always jittery wherever Khrushchev goes, became downright jumpy. Plans to have Khrushchev ride in an open car were abandoned, and the route he was to follow was changed.

Police lined the 17 miles in from the airport. And they stood with their backs to the road, their eyes peeled for potential trouble on any of the hills.

Khrushchev was taken up the narrow, winding road to the top of Mt. Washington for a sweeping view of Pittsburgh. From there he could see the skyscrapers—many of them especially lit up for the occasion—of downtown Pittsburgh, an imposing sight.

A crowd of 5,000 or more was jammed around the Carlton House, awaiting Khrushchev, even though he didn't arrive until 12:03 a.m.

Here were more signs. One said: "God Bless America, God free Ukraine."

Another: "Red Atrocities in Ukraine defy description."

But some signs were favorable. "A salute to peace," one read. And another proclaimed: "We salute the peace efforts of President Eisenhower and Premier Khrushchev."

Mr. K. stood for a moment facing the crowd. He waved his hat, and then went into the hotel and, presumably, to bed.

Jail Inmate Slashes Wrists

Prisoner Treated, Released at Berger

Joseph E. Giffen, 23, Route 1, Glouster, a prisoner at the Pickaway County Jail, made an unsuccessful suicide attempt last night.

Sheriff's deputies said Giffen slashed his wrists with a razor blade. He was rushed to Berger Hospital for emergency treatment and later returned to the jail.

According to deputies, Giffen said he was depressed and that he was having marital problems. He is being held here on a charge of unarmed robbery.

Giffen was bound to the Pickaway County Grand Jury under a $500 bond on a charge of attacking and robbing William Cassidy, 31, Long St. Cassidy said the incident was in an alley near the Winorr Canning Co.

GIFFEN is a member of the U. S. Army. He was on leave from Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., when arrested here.

Other prisoners in the jail said Giffen slashed his wrists without being noticed. One of the prisoners wrapped a towel around the man's arms and immediately notified deputies.

Lima Love Triangle Bared By Shooting

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—Details of an admitted love triangle shooting were related Wednesday night by a 35-year-old engineer, shot by another man who then took his own life in the engineer's bathroom.

Involved in the shooting last Friday night were the engineer, Glen Cubbison; his wife, Felma, also 35; and Howard C. Hawkey, 43. Sheriff Clay Cotterman said Cubbison gave him a statement from his bed in St. Rita's Hospital where he is recovering from bullet wounds.

In the statement, Cubbison said Hawkey came to his home, shot him twice in the left shoulder and chased Mrs. Cubbison into another room.

"I fell to the kitchen floor and was lying there asking somebody to help me when Hawkey came back and shot me three more times," Cubbison said. "Next, I heard my wife scream, there was another shot, then she came back into the kitchen and said Hawkey had killed himself."

Cubbison said the attack was the second in which Hawkey had threatened Mrs. Cubbison with a gun when she attempted to end a five-year relationship with him.

Community Fund Collections Total 11 Per Cent in 1st Week

With the 1959 Pickaway County Community Fund drive just barely under way, a total of $3,578.04 has been collected.

That is 11.92 per cent of the $30,000 goal.

The Pickaway County Community Fund supports five agencies—Red Cross, Salvation Army, Youth Canteen, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

Today's total of almost $3,600 is the first meager report on the campaign. Industrial solicitations have been under way for about 10 days and only a partial report has been received.

However, indications are that the industrial drive will be successful, with gifts running slightly more than a year ago. Business solicitations are in progress, but no financial report has been received at fund headquarters in the American Hotel.

The residential and county solicitations are to begin October 5.

Growers of Ohio Blue Grapes Are Blue about Low Prices

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP)—An excellent but small blue grape crop is being harvested in northern Ohio, and growers are grumbling that prices offered them are too low.

The Ohio Crop Reporting Service estimates an Ohio crop of about 16,000 tons, about 4,000 under last year. Grapes already marketed here are of high quality, with an average sugar content of about 16 per cent.

Most of the Ohio crop goes to Welch's Grape Cooperative in Westfield, N.Y., and the co-op later sets the price. Last year growers got $100 a ton, plus a final payment still due and expected to be about $15, as well as some 20-year scrip.

"How can we honestly pay our pickers when we don't know what price we'll get?" complained Ray Gruber of Ashtabula County, president of the Tri County (Ashtabula, Geauga and Lake) Grape Growers Assn. The charter of the association, which represents about two-thirds of the 300 grape growers in the area, does not permit collective bargaining.

"It costs me $90 plus to raise a ton of grapes at the rate of three tons to the acre, and that's the state average," Gruber said. "If grapes were like chickens, I could get in and out. But here it takes five years before you pick the first decent crop."

Lovell Green of Lake County, secretary of the Tri-County Assn. declared:

"Either we organize and talk price, or we're dead."

The Fischer-Spiegel, Inc. juice concentrating plant in Geneva, Ohio, is a big buyer in the tri-county area and follows the Welch co-op payment pattern. Green said they paid $100 a ton for last year's crop and "that's the same price Fischer-Spiegel paid in 1948."

"We have their ads for 1945,

when they offered $100," Green went on.

"Next year we hope to come up with a definite minimum before we start to pick grapes. We need $50 over the 1948 price just to break even."

"We've got to become a bargaining co-op. That seems to be the trend in all farming."

Green estimated his vineyards this year would yield about five tons to the acre, compared with six tons last year.

Complicating the price picture is possible competition from Canadian imports. An executive order has reduced the maximum duty on a cubic foot of fresh grapes from 25 to 12½ cents.

Someone had been ransacking in his bed. And there he was. Still snoring.

Police charged Andrew Harris with burglary.

Other prisoners in the jail said Giffen slashed his wrists without being noticed. One of the prisoners wrapped a towel around the man's arms and immediately notified deputies.

Lima Love Triangle Bared By Shooting

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—Details of an admitted love triangle shooting were related Wednesday night by a 35-year-old engineer, shot by another man who then took his own life in the engineer's bathroom.

Involved in the shooting last Friday night were the engineer, Glen Cubbison; his wife, Felma, also 35; and Howard C. Hawkey, 43. Sheriff Clay Catterman said Cubbison gave him a statement from his bed in St. Rita's Hospital where he is recovering from bullet wounds.

In the statement, Cubbison said Hawkey came to his home, shot him twice in the left shoulder and chased Mrs. Cubbison into another room.

"I fell to the kitchen floor and was lying there asking somebody to help me when Hawkey came back and shot me three more times," Cubbison said. "Next, I heard my wife scream, there was another shot, then she came back into the kitchen and said Hawkey had killed himself."

Cubbison said the attack was the second in which Hawkey had threatened Mrs. Cubbison with a gun when she attempted to end a five-year relationship with him.

Community Fund Collections Total 11 Per Cent in 1st Week

With the 1959 Pickaway County Community Fund drive just barely under way, a total of $3,578.04 has been collected.

That is 11.92 per cent of the $30,000 goal.

The Pickaway County Community Fund supports five agencies—Red Cross, Salvation Army, Youth Canteen, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

Today's total of almost $3,600 is the first meager report on the campaign. Industrial solicitations have been under way for about 10 days and only a partial report has been received.

However, indications are that the industrial drive will be successful, with gifts running slightly more than a year ago. Business solicitations are in progress, but no financial report has been received at fund headquarters in the American Hotel.

The residential and county solicitations are to begin October 5.

Growers of Ohio Blue Grapes Are Blue about Low Prices

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP)—An excellent but small blue grape crop is being harvested in northern Ohio, and growers are grumbling that prices offered them are too low.

The Ohio Crop Reporting Service estimates an Ohio crop of about 16,000 tons, about 4,000 under last year. Grapes already marketed have been of high quality, with an average sugar content of about 16 per cent.

Most of the Ohio crop goes to Welch's Grape Cooperative in Westfield, N.Y., and the co-op later sets the price. Last year growers got $100 a ton, plus a final payment still due and expected to be about $15, as well as some 20-year scrip.

"How can we honestly pay our pickers when we don't know what price we'll get?" complained Ray Gruber of Ashtabula County, president of the Tri County (Ashtabula, Geauga and Lake) Grape Growers Assn. The charter of the association, which represents about two-thirds of the 300 grape growers in the area, does not permit collective bargaining.

"It costs me $90 plus to raise a ton of grapes at the rate of three tons to the acre, and that's the state average," Gruber said. "If grapes were like chickens, I could get in and out. But here it takes five years before you pick the first decent crop."

Lovell Green of Lake County, secretary of the Tri-County Assn. declared:

"Either we organize and talk price, or we're dead."

The Fischer-Spiegel, Inc. juice concentrating plant in Geneva, Ohio, is a big buyer in the tri-county area and follows the Welch co-op payment pattern. Green said they paid $100 a ton for last year's crop and "that's the same price Fischer-Spiegel paid in 1948."

"We have their ads for 1945,

when they offered $100," Green went on.

"Next year we hope to come up with a definite minimum before we start to pick grapes. We need $50 over the 1948 price just to break even."

"We've got to become a bargaining co-op. That seems to be the trend in all farming."

Green estimated his vineyards this year would yield about five tons to the acre, compared with six tons last year.

Complicating the price picture is possible competition from Canadian imports. An executive officer has reduced the maximum duty on a cubic foot of fresh grapes from 25 to 12½ cents.

But His Name Isn't Goldilocks

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—"Someone has been tampering with my door," thought Morris Wilson when he found his home unlocked.

Someone had been ransacking the house, too, he discovered, when he entered.

Someone had been ransacking in his bed. And there he was. Still snoring.

Police charged Andrew Harris with burglary.

At Least 2,000 Jobs To Be Lost by Change

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Air Force's termination of the F108 program will cost the jobs of 1,000 Los Angeles employees of North American Aviation, Inc.

Another 1,000 will be released at North American's Columbus, Ohio, plant.

More employees will lose their jobs as the program is wound up, the company said.

BANK ROBBER KILLS SELF — Women employees leap through broken front windows while Cleveland policemen hurl tear gas into a bank from behind parked squad cars. A bank robber was found dead inside the bank following the battle with police. He had threatened to blow up the bank manager's family in his bizarre plot, but wound up killing himself.

Another Try Due In Steel Parley

NEW YORK (AP)—Another day of steel strike bargaining, which a federal mediator calls "a frustrating spectacle," and the union president describes as wasted, was scheduled for today.

Subcommittee of negotiators for the United Steel Workers Union and the nation's steel industry are scheduled to confer, with no top-level negotiations scheduled until Friday.

USW President David McDonald Wednesday said that "absolutely no progress" had been made in two weeks of talks by the subcommittees.

Federal Mediator Joseph F. Finnegan, while agreeing that "it sure as hell has been a frustrating spectacle," added that he thought the subcommittees had cleared away "a lot of underbrush."

Canadian-U.S. Forgery Ring Is Smashed

MONTREAL, Que. (AP)—Canadian and U.S. police forces have cracked an international ring that used forged credit cards to cash bogus checks.

Police in Montreal said Wednesday the ring had been in operation since early August.

Seven men are in custody, two more are being detained for questioning and at least 10 others are being sought. One of those hunted is a printer recently arrived from Europe who is believed to have printed the forgeries.

Police said the ring used a west-end bar and grill in Montreal as headquarters.

Four were arrested in Montreal while the other three were nabbed in Columbus, Ohio. The Columbus trio included two Canadians and an American.

A police spokesman said gang members used personal credit cards forged in the name of the Diners' Club, Inc., to establish a fictitious identity to cash bogus checks drawn on large corporations.

Alfred Bloomingdale, president of the Diners Club, said the organization's losses are "negligible."

Joe Tillem, the club's chief lawyer, said: "The banks are the big losers. Their losses could reach as high as $250,000."

Impersonator

The little man made Fox drive to the bank, where they were to wait until a time lock opened the vault. The woman, driving the rented car, followed them, but was not seen again.

At the bank the little man tried a trick that usually takes more than one gunman. He kept holding bank employees as hostages when they reported for work.

The police soon came. Someone reported a "disturbance," and a cruiser started a siege with a shotgun. About the same time Marilyn Fox, 18, had broken her bonds and sent word to a neighbor to call police headquarters.

After a dozen shots and 10 canisters of tear gas, a reinforced police phalanx released the hostages unharmed. The little man shot himself.

His companion had vanished without a trace.

Mrs. K Said To Understand Life on Farm

COON RAPIDS, Iowa (AP)—When Nina Khrushchev looked over Iowa's corn Wednesday it was with a knowing eye.

That's the word from her hostess, Mrs. Roswell Garst, who said Mrs. Khrushchev "knows a great deal about agriculture."

What's more, added the wife of one of Iowa's big seed corn growers, Mrs. Khrushchev understands the techniques involved in growing hybrid seed corn.

Gray-haired Mrs. Khrushchev turned aside invitations to take a look at a Coon Rapids elementary school and stuck with her Soviet Premier husband to trudge through the black soil of several farmyards and fields.

She had to put up with a crush of newsmen and photographers that at times shut off her view. She and her husband were separated completely in the mob scene.

In a black suit and wearing open, sling-back white shoes, she pushed her way through to peer over a gray fence at a special herd of Charolais bulls that Khrushchev was inspecting.

"She didn't have enough time to settle down and have a good look," Mrs. Garst, lamented, nor "any time for serious, comfortable discussion."

Mrs. Garst, gray-haired too, wearing eye glasses and a green and white print dress for the famous visit, was much annoyed by the working press.

Mrs. Garst told photographers "I don't want my picture taken—get away from me."

"It's very, very annoying," she said to Mrs. Khrushchev, "and I would like to kick them in the face, too." Her terrible-tempered husband actually had kicked a newsmen or two.

Auto Driver Hurt in Crash

A driver was injured in a car-truck crash on Route 22 about 15 miles west of here at 10:40 p. m. yesterday.

Francis Jordan, 48, Route 1, New Holland, driver of the car, suffered multiple abrasions of the arms and legs. He was taken to Fayette Memorial Hospital in Washington, D. C.

The tractor-trailer assembly was operated by Harvey R. Johnson, 43, Cincinnati. He was not injured. Johnson told Deputy Sheriff Robert Hoover that he started to pass Jordan's eastbound auto which had pulled onto Route 22 from a side road.

HE SAID the car pulled in front of him as he attempted to pass, with the tractor striking the rear of the auto.

Deputy Hoover said the rear of the car was demolished and that the left front of the tractor was extensively damaged.

Another Try Due In Steel Parley

NEW YORK (AP) — Another day of steel strike bargaining, which a federal mediator calls "a frustrating spectacle," and the union president describes as wasted, was scheduled for today.

Subcommittee of negotiators for the United Steel Workers Union and the nation's steel industry are scheduled to confer, with no top-level negotiations scheduled until Friday.

USW President David McDonald Wednesday said that "absolutely no progress" had been made in two weeks of talks by the subcommittees.

Federal Mediator Joseph F. Finnegan, while agreeing that "it sure as hell has been a frustrating spectacle," added that he thought the subcommittees had cleared away "a lot of underbrush."

Canadian-U.S. Forgery Ring Is Smashed

MONTREAL, Que. (AP)—Canadian and U.S. police forces have cracked an international ring that used forged credit cards to cash bogus checks.

Police in Montreal said Wednesday the ring had been in operation since early August.

Seven men are in custody, two more are being detained for questioning and at least 10 others are being sought. One of those hunted is a printer recently arrived from Europe who is believed to have printed the forgeries.

Police said the ring used a west-end bar and grill in Montreal as headquarters.

Four were arrested in Montreal while the other three were nabbed in Columbus, Ohio. The Columbus trio included two Canadians and an American.

A police spokesman said gang members used personal credit cards forged in the name of the Diners' Club, Inc., to establish a fictitious identity to cash bogus checks drawn on large corporations.

Alfred Bloomingdale, president of the Diners Club, said the organization's losses are "negligible."

Joe Tillem, the club's chief lawyer, said: "The banks are the big losers. Their losses could reach as high as $250,000."

Impersonator

family, they left only a fake bomb ticking away.

The little man made Fox drive to the bank, where they were to wait until a time lock opened the vault. The woman, driving the rented car, followed them, but was not seen again.

At the bank the little man tried a trick that usually takes more than one gunman. He kept holding bank employees as hostages when they reported for work.

The police soon came. Someone reported a "disturbance," and a cruiser started a siege with a shotgun. About the same time Marilyn Fox, 18, had broken her bonds and sent word to a neighbor to call police headquarters.

After a dozen shots and 10 canisters of tear gas, a reinforced police phalanx released the hostages unharmed. The little man shot himself.

His companion had vanished without a trace.

Mrs. K Said To Understand Life on Farm

COON RAPIDS, Iowa (AP) — When Nina Khrushchev looked over Iowa's corn Wednesday it was with a knowing eye.

That's the word from her hostess, Mrs. Roswell Garst, who said Mrs. Khrushchev "knows a great deal about agriculture."

What's more, added the wife of one of Iowa's big seed corn growers, Mrs. Khrushchev understands the techniques involved in growing hybrid seed corn.

Gray-haired Mrs. Khrushchev turned aside invitations to take a look at a Coon Rapids elementary school and stuck with her Soviet Premier husband to trudge through the black soil of several farmyards and fields.

She had to put up with a crush of newsmen and photographers that at times shut off her view. She and her husband were separated completely in the mob scene.

In a black suit and wearing open, sling-back white shoes, she pulled her way through to peer over a gray fence at a special herd of Charolais bulls that Khrushchev was inspecting.

"She didn't have enough time to settle down and have a good look," Mrs. Garst, lamented, nor "any time for serious, comfortable discussion."

Mrs. Garst, gray-haired too, wearing eye glasses and a green and white print dress for the famous visit, was much annoyed by the working press.

Mrs. Garst told photographers "I don't want my picture taken—get away from me."

"It's very, very annoying," she said to Mrs. Khrushchev, "and I would like to kick them in the face, too." Her terrible-tempered husband actually had kicked a newsmen or two.

Project Zip--a Total Loss

Project Zip-heralded frequently since its inception in 1952 as the ultimate in aircraft fuel undertakings — has burst in a shower of lost jobs, wasted military expenditures and a gigantic investment of private and public capital in manufacturing facilities and specialized equipment which may have no other adaptation. A team of Pentagon officials will attempt to find some other use for the facilities, but the current outlook is gloomy toward recovery much of the $200 million cost of the cancelled project.

Rapid obsolescence of military devices has caused many disruptions and much financial waste in the past, and apparently will become more costly in the future as more complex development projects come under Pentagon scrutiny, but cancellation of the "exotic" fuel programs by the Navy and Air Force has caused more than the usual heartaches created by a cancelled government project. Two major manufacturing facilities, a $45 million plant near Lewiston, N. Y., and a $35 million setup at Muskogee, Okla., are the most obvious casualties. More than 2,000 persons employed at the two plants have lost their jobs.

Three other fuel plants, all smaller than the New York and Oklahoma giants, were built some years ago and served as models for the larger ones. These, also, have been placed on a standby basis. But even this doesn't tell the full story of disrupted lives, hopes and industrial losses. The development of fuels from boron, a non-metallic element found in borax, began in 1952, when the Navy asked 20 chemical companies to attempt the development of a liquid fuel.

From that date on, nothing but enthusiasm was expressed for the future of the project. The chief of the Navy's Bureau of Aeronautics in November, 1956, described the fuel to be produced at the Muskogee installation as the one weapon "that will enable American air power to maintain the ascendancy necessary to guarantee the democratic way of life to the peoples of the free world."

Only six months ago the President sent to Congress a report from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration which stated that "research and development on high-energy fuels for air-breathing engines continues to be a high-priority program in which the NASA and other government agencies are cooperating."

The New York plant was not completed until last month, and both major installations were about to begin production of the "ultimate" in jet fuels when the Pentagon threw the switch. Defense Department officials intimated they were not satisfied with the performance of the boron fuel and, because of cancellation of contracts on certain jet engines they no longer had any requirement for the fuel.

This explanation raises the question: Why were such extensive manufacturing facilities constructed to produce a fuel in massive quantities when the fuel had not yet passed the development stage?

Each of the two major plants was built in a short period of time, indicating there would not have been a significant time lapse after the fuel had proved itself until it was in production. Even if this short period raised doubts, the three smaller installations were prepared to produce sufficient quantities to last until a larger output could be obtained.

Small Magazines Important

A bookseller in a small town was telling me recently that he was surprised at how young people bought high-brow paper-back books. He carries a full stock of such titles and his customers are mostly what he calls youngsters.

Of course, it was always youngsters who were enthusiastic for great literature. It is a characteristic of youth to discover and explore. Each generation produces its Marco Poles and its Christopher Columbuses. And each generation finds a bit of disillusionment when it realizes that Romeo and Juliet loved even as young people today find love.

It is so with the small magazines. Their circulations run between 5,000 and 30,000. Yet, they exercise an enormous influence because their articles are usually written with great care, by writers who seek to express themselves rather than to earn some money. Men of erudition and literary competence, who find it difficult to be published, will contribute valuable articles to the small magazines.

It used to be that "The Nation" and "The New Republic" led this field. "The Nation" has had a long history of supporting what appeared at the moment of publication, lost causes, but which over a period of time, became a rule of life in our country. However, in recent years, it has lost much of its savor.

Similarly, "The New Republic" was at one time one of the most important organs of opinion in the United States. It was a subsidized publication in the sense that Willard Straight, a liberal-minded J. P. Morgan partner, underwrote its losses for a period.

"The New Republic" was conceived by Herbert Croly and included a galaxy of editors, including Walter Lippmann, today unequalled by any publication. In recent years, it has lost caste, perhaps because it has been unable to sustain the high quality of 40 years ago.

Croly died; Lippmann became a columnist; Charles Merz became editor of "The New York Times" and has been lost in its magnitude. Other editors died or became disillusioned or simply gave up. Today, "The New Republic" continues.

"The New Leader" is a lively, socialistic magazine which struggles along under the greatest difficulties. It publishes some of the most important articles to appear in this country. Its range is world-wide and sometimes one is startled by the significance of the men who write for it. One

"And now for the star of our show."

Cancer Fight Gains Made

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

What's new in our war against cancer? Well, new discoveries are frequently being made by the army of researchers now attacking the problem.

Here are a few of the recent findings.

Doctors have developed a new method for detecting very early cancer of the bladder. This is extremely important, of course, because the earlier we detect cancer, the better chance we have of eliminating it.

The new technique involves microscopic examination of the urine for cancer cells. With this method, cancer can be revealed before it can be found by any other means.

Some of the cancer detected by the new procedure was not detected by cystoscopy until after repeated examinations. In a cystoscopic examination a tube is passed into the bladder permitting direct visual examination or the collection of tissue samples.

There also is a new method for the use of radioactive tracers as a guide in the treatment of breast cancer.

This technique enables a doctor to predict how a particular cancer will respond to a hormonal or chemotherapeutic agent. Thus, the therapy can be changed, if necessary.

Often breast cancer can be benefited by treatment with any of three different types of hormones — male, female and cortisone — or a wide variety of surgical procedures which remove hormone-producing glands — the ovaries, the pituitary and the adrenals.

However, in some patients, certain hormonal treatments may actually accelerate the disease. Naturally, it is important, therefore, to be able to predict the patient's response to specific treatment.

The third new procedure involves the use of a radioactive isotope to detect and follow the course of disease affecting the bones.

The isotope, calcium 47, emits high energy radiations which are readily detectable with radiation counters.

When administered to patients, it is taken up by growing bone tissue, just as ordinary calcium would be taken up.

Normal bone takes up regular amounts. However, in certain cases when cancer has invaded the bone, much larger amounts are taken up.

Thus the areas of bone in which cancer is present can be detected by the concentration of radioactivity at these sites.

Question and Answer
F. L. C.: Forty years ago, I cut my hand while harvesting corn and ever since have had a scab over the area. This spot is sore to touch.

Could this be cancer and what can I do about it?

Answer: The sore on your hand can be cancerous. You should consult your doctor who may remove a small piece for microscopic examination.

A Fervent Plea for Dandelion

NEW YORK (AP) — Drat it, they've done it again! They've low-rated the dandelion.

Some 43 countries have national flowers. They range from the ceibo of Argentina to the shamrock of Ireland.

The U.S.A. and the Soviet Union alone among major powers have no national flower.

For 40 years—ever since Woodrow Wilson's second term—Congress has made tentative gestures toward picking a national flower. But the legislators, busy waging war and peace, always ducked the thorny issue.

But flower lovers lately have been buttonholing Congress to settle the blooming controversy once and for all.

The pressure has borne some fruit. Individual legislators have arisen this year, and in oratory reminiscent of the tariff debates, nominated a number of "favorite son" flowers to be the national floral emblem.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky nominated grass.

"Where would the cow, the foster mother of mankind, be without grass?" thundered the Demos-thenes of the Blue Grass State.

Well, to let Congress know how the people really feel, the nation's florists decided to poll the public on what should be the national flower.

During October 11,000 members of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Assn. will set up ballot boxes and invite every American man, woman and child to vote for his favorite flower.

The ballot lists 20 candidates.

A huge radio telescope being built in West Virginia will peer into space 19 times farther than does the 200-inch Mount Palomar 'scope. That should give astronomers quite an eyeful.

West Germany, Britain and France gave visiting President Eisenhower tremendous welcomes. Score an unassisted triple play for Ike!

The Newcastle, England, thief who stole a six-ton bulldozer was, no doubt, a member of the "light-fingered" gentry — with a heavy touch.

A Federal Reserve Bank spokesman denies rumors that there is a flaw or a mistake in the new-type Lincoln pennies. Zadok Dumkopt says he believes him—there just couldn't be anything faulty about old Honest Abe.

An average of 25 fire stations burn up every year, the International Association of Fire Chiefs reveals. Holy smoke!

It includes those already nominated in Congress: the black-eyed susan, corn tassel, carnation, daffodil, marigold, mountain laurel, rose, shasta daisy—and grass.

But the florists have overlooked the best bet of all, the common dandelion, a flower Mary Margaret McBride and I have been extolling for years.

America can have the dandelion as its very own. And it should. This golden democrat of pasture and home comes unasked to all—rich or poor—as free as the God-given winds that float its myriad gray parachutes.

Come October, go to your nearest floral ballot box and cast a write-in vote for a real all-American flower—the dandelion.

Let the bald eagle soar forever with a peaceful dandelion in his fierce beak, symbolizing a land both proud and humble!

Project Zip--a Total Loss

Project Zip--heralded frequently since its inception in 1952 as the ultimate in aircraft fuel undertakings -- has burst in a shower of lost jobs, wasted military expenditures and a gigantic investment of private and public capital in manufacturing facilities and specialized equipment which may have no other adaptation. A team of Pentagon officials will attempt to find some other use for the facilities, but the current outlook is gloomy toward recovery much of the $200 million cost of the cancelled project.

Rapid obsolescence of military devices has caused many disruptions and much financial waste in the past, and apparently will become more costly in the future as more complex development projects come under Pentagon scrutiny, but cancellation of the "exotic" fuel programs by the Navy and Air Force has caused more than the usual heartaches created by a cancelled government project. Two major manufacturing facilities, a $45 million plant near Lewistown, N. Y., and a $35 million setup at Muskogee, Okla., are the most obvious casualties. ## Small Magazines Important

A bookseller in a small town was telling me recently that he was surprised at how young people bought high-brow paper-back books. He carries a full stock of such titles and his customers are mostly what he calls youngsters.

Of course, it was always youngsters who were enthusiastic for great literature. It is a characteristic of youth to discover and explore. Each generation produces its Marco Poles and its Christopher Columbuses. And each generation finds a bit of disillusionment when it realizes that Romeo and Juliet loved even as young people today find love.

It is so with the small magazines. Their circulations run between 5,000 and 30,000. Yet, they exercise an enormous influence because their articles are usually written with great care, by writers who seek to express themselves rather than to earn some money. Men of erudition and literary competence, who find it difficult to be published, will contribute valuable articles to the small magazines.

It used to be that "The Nation" and "The New Republic" led this field. "The Nation" has had a long history of supporting what appeared at the moment of publication, lost causes, but which over a period of time, became a rule of life in our country. However, in recent years, it has lost much of its savor.

Similarly, "The New Republic" was at one time one of the most important organs of opinion in the United States. It was a subsidized publication in the sense that Willard Straight, a liberal-minded J. P. Morgan partner, underwrote its losses for a period.

"The New Republic" was conceived by Herbert Croly and included a galaxy of editors, including Walter Lippmann, today unequalled by any publication. In recent years, it has lost caste, perhaps because it has been unable to sustain the high quality of 40 years ago.

Croly died; Lippmann became a columnist; Charles Merz became editor of "The New York Times" and has been lost in its magnitude. Other editors died or became disillusioned or simply gave up. Today, "The New Republic" continues.

"The New Leader" is a lively, socialistic magazine which struggles along under the greatest difficulties. It publishes some of the most important articles to appear in this country. Its range is world-wide and sometimes one is startled by the significance of the men who write for it. One can readily say that "The New Leader" is one of the most useful magazines in the United States, although, I must confess, it generally opposes much that I favor. The "National Review" is the most erudite publication on the Right. Its quality is high; its articles important; its editors earnest. It loses about $100,000 a year, for which it has to beg, it is much easier to beg on the Left than on the Right.

Capitalists admire money success and do not understand why a publication that is worthy should not earn its way. Of course, the explanation is that these same capitalists do not place advertisements in publications except on the basis of circulation and erudite journals of opinion are not liable to have large circulations.

The "National Review" has the special virtue of being written in literate English which ought to appeal to those college students who wish to know how the other half thinks. It has been uncompromisingly a conservative journal, which is something difficult to be in this country without suffering from the tendency to slip over into crackpot notions. It must be a trying editorial task to keep the nuts out, because the Right Wing attracts as many peculiar people as the Left and I sometimes wonder if they are not of a kind. But the "National Review" does it ably.

Two publications on the Right are "Human Events" and "Counterattack." Both are news letters, although "Human Events" publishes important articles as supplements. "Counterattack" maintains the file on Communist activities in the United States.

Among the horrible small magazines are a plethora of hate sheets that come from various places, all designed to stimulate hatred for Jews, Catholics, Negroes, Communists, anti-Communists, vivisectionists, etc. There seems to be a lot of money available for such publications most of which are badly edited, poorly printed and devoted to falsehoods of a special nature. It is remarkable, however, that some of them, obviously false, exercise a considerable influence.

Delaware Area Bridge Due To Be Replaced

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A 58-year-old bridge which takes Ohio 521 across Alum Creek northeast of Delaware should be replaced, the Highway Department says. It has arranged a public hearing today in Delaware. Total cost of a new bridge would be about $230,000, the department estimates.

Japanese is spoken by about 97 million people.

General Tel To Hand Out Amanda Books

This week more than 3200 new telephone directories are going into homes and businesses of General Telephone Company of Ohio's customers in the communities of Amanda, Baltimore, Millersport and Pleasantville. Also sharing the new directory are the exchanges of Bremen, Canal Winchester, Carroll, Lithopolis, Rushville, Pickerington and Sugar Grove.

According to Alan Fuller, Circleville district commercial manager, of which these communities are a part, the directories have gay color illustrations which rival the slick color magazines. The background of the cover is beige with the front and back carrying illustrations of various types of telephone services that are available.

"All numbers in the new book are interlocked, meaning that all customers in these communities are listed in one alphabetical section," he added. The directory is designed in three columns making it easy to read and easy to handle. "In addition, there are more classifications of businesses in the expanded Yellow Pages," Fuller said.

The commercial manager suggested that the new directory be referred to for the assurance of prompt and accurate service as there are many telephone number changes and additions reflected for the Amanda-Baltimore area customers.

He also stated, "Distribution is expected to be completed by October 1." All customers are asked to dispose of their old directories after making sure there are no valuable addresses, telephone numbers or notes inserted within the pages.

General Tel To Hand Out Amanda Books

This week more than 3200 new telephone directories are going into homes and businesses of General Telephone Company of Ohio's customers in the communities of Amanda, Baltimore, Millersport and Pleasantville. Also sharing the new directory are the exchanges of Bremen, Canal Winchester, Carroll, Lithopolis, Rushville, Pickerington and Sugar Grove.

According to Alan Fuller, Circleville district commercial manager, of which these communities are a part, the directories have gay color illustrations which rival the slick color magazines. The background of the cover is beige with the front and back carrying illustrations of various types of telephone services that are available.

"All numbers in the new book are interlocked, meaning that all customers in these communities are listed in one alphabetical section," he added. The directory is designed in three columns making it easy to read and easy to handle. "In addition, there are more classifications of businesses in the expanded Yellow Pages," Fuller said.

Living Costs Show Decline In August

WASHINGTON (AP)—The cost of living edged down one-tenth of 1 per cent last month from July's record high, the Labor Department reported today.

A big seasonal drop in food prices, nine-tenths of 1 per cent, was solely responsible for halting the summer spurt of consumer prices.

Price tags were higher on virtually everything else making up the average city family's costs.

This was nine-tenths of 1 per cent higher than a year earlier. The figures mean it now takes nearly $1.25 to buy what cost a dollar in the years immediately after World War II.

In spite of the slight drop in costs, at least 125,000 workers will receive wage increases under cost-of-living escalator contracts which are adjusted quarterly.

Almost all food prices declined in August. Fresh fruits and vegetables, beef, pork and poultry showed the largest reduction.

McElroy Planning For Grand Jury

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Ohio Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy said today it will be six to eight weeks before a special grand jury will be summoned to consider indictments in a probe of Stark County gambling. The investigation into gambling and the request for grand jury action was made by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

McElroy said the investigation already has produced 25 pounds of reports submitted by his staff. "We can't assemble this information overnight," he said. "It takes time."

He said he would not summon the special grand jury until the probe is completed.

Railroads in Poland extend about 17,000 miles.

Hecht-Hill-Lancaster Co. Loses Money, Calls It Quits

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — What happened to Hecht-Hill-Lancaster?

Hollywood has been wondering about that ever since the news leaked out that the highly successful producing firm was dissolving. Its future had seemed solid. H-H-L had been the biggest of the independents. Its prosperity had helped trigger the new era of film making, with stars heading companies that rivaled the major studios.

Now H-H-L is no more. I sought the reasons from Burt Lancaster as he changed into his '20s togs as revivalist in "Elmer Gantry."

"We were losing money," he said. "It's as simple as that. No, it isn't really. There were other factors involved. We had built up an organization that was too big for the things we wanted to do."

He explained how film economics had tripped up himself and partners Harold Hecht and James Hill.

"It would have been easy to turn out the surefire pictures, the blockbusters. But we didn't want to do that. We also wanted to do the pictures that interested us as creators."

"But you can't spend two or three years preparing a film that might have limited appeal. 'Sweet Smell of Success' cost $2,200,000 and it didn't do business. 'The Bachelor Party' cost a million and it will barely show the profit. We won't get our money back on 'The Rabbit Trap,' which cost $500,000. We have a wonderful picture in 'Take a Giant Step,' but I doubt if it will make money."

H-H-L had fabulous success with two of its early films. Lancaster reported "Trapeze" grossed 14 million and "Vera Cruz" 9 million. But big grosses were not the partners' sole aim, and now they feel they will be happier at separate tables.

Irked Youths Bomb Empty Church

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Revenge, not racial tension, prompted five white youths into bombing an empty Negro church here, police say.

The five, all 18 years old, were charged Tuesday with causing an explosion with intent to injure a person or property of another.

The True Way Church of God in Jesus Christ was bombed Monday night when a homemade gunpowder device was thrown through a window.

Hecht-Hill-Lancaster Co. Loses Money, Calls It Quits

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — What happened to Hecht-Hill-Lancaster Co.?

Hollywood has been wondering about that ever since the news leaked out that the highly successful producing firm was dissolving. Its future had seemed solid. H-H-L had been the biggest of the independents. Its prosperity had helped trigger the new era of film making, with stars heading companies that rivaled the major studios.

Now H-H-L is no more. I sought the reasons from Burt Lancaster as he changed into his '20s togs as revivalist in "Elmer Gantry."

"We were losing money," he said. "It's as simple as that. No, it isn't really. There were other factors involved. We had built up an organization that was too big for the things we wanted to do."

He explained how film economics had tripped up himself and partners Harold Hecht and James Hill.

"It would have been easy to turn out the surefire pictures, the blockbusters. But we didn't want to do that. We also wanted to do the pictures that interested us as creators."

"But you can't spend two or three years preparing a film that might have limited appeal. 'Sweet Smell of Success' cost $2,200,000 and it didn't do business. 'The Bachelor Party' cost a million and it will barely show a profit. We won't get our money back on 'The Rabbit Trap,' which cost $500,000. We have a wonderful picture in 'Take a Giant Step,' but I doubt if it will make money."

H-H-L had fabulous success with two of its early films. Lancaster reported "Trapeze" grossed 14 million and "Vera Cruz" 9 million. But big grosses were not the partners' sole aim, and now they feel they will be happier at separate tables.

Dear Abby...

You're Very Lucky, Honey!

DEAR ABBY: What can you do with a husband who won't eat anything but meat and potatoes?

I've been married for three years and that's all I've cooked. My husband refuses to try anything new. He says he doesn't like it before he's even tried it. So naturally, I've lost all interest in cooking.

I'm ready to call it quits. How do other women solve this problem? Or am I fighting a losing battle?

MARY LOUISE

DEAR MARY: Some women don't know when they're well off. Don't complain because your husband is too EASY to please. Just get a good cook book and discover the variety of exciting things you can do with meat 'n' potatoes. When hubby comes home he'll always know WHAT'S cooking—but not HOW.

DEAR ABBY: I have a suggestion for the woman who was afraid to let her aging father drive the car, but he insisted on driving anyway. Report this matter to your local State Drivers License Division. They will send him a notice to appear for reexamination for his driver's permit. Before they grant him a renewal, he will have to be checked by his physician and a report sent them. They continue a yearly check-up on a driver so reported.

My husband is 18 years older than I am, and I'm no spring chicken. His vision was poor, and his hearing was worse and he drove like a madman. Every time I asked him to let me drive, he'd get furious. I reported him and they wouldn't renew his license. The nice part of this whole thing is that the person involved never knows who reported him. I don't know about the other States, but it works in California.

"L. A. Lizzie"

DEAR ABBY: I am an 18-year-old girl and thanks to my wonderful parents and religious training I've earned a good reputation.

Abby, honestly, I was brought up to believe that girls who let boys "paw" them were the losers. Please don't tell me that boys do not marry this kind of girl be-

Scioto Budget Breaks Even

No Balance Seen For 1961 Start

Scioto Twp. trustees expect no 1961 balance according to the 1960 budget filed with Pickaway County Auditor Mrs. Marvinne H. Rhoades.

The budget was filed by trustee board clerk, S. E. Beers, July 20. It called for receipts and expenditures of $5,760 each.

The budget showed a reduction of $4,023.79 in beginning year balances from 1959 to 1960 to partially explain the drop in receipts of $2,853.19.

General property taxes were estimated to increase $1,613.21 while sales taxes were to remain the same and no estimate was made on inheritance taxes which were $442.60 for 1959.

1960 ESTIMATED expenditures were $2,593.18 less than in 1959 mainly due to the drop in town hall expenses of $1,793.18.

Estimated receipts for 1960 with 1959 figures in parentheses are: balance, $260 ($4,283.79), general property taxes, $5,000 ($3,386.79) and sales taxes, $500 or same as this year for the $5,760 total.

1960 estimated expenditures with 1959 figures in parentheses are: trustees' salaries, $5,200 ($5,200); trustees' expenses, $25, same; town hall expenses, $95 ($1,888.18); Cemeteries' expenses, $400 ($1,200) and lighting expenses, $40, same for a total of $5,760.

Road and bridge fund receipts and expenditures were equal at $8,574.06 for no 1961 balance.

Saltcreek Twp. Expects '60 Operations to Top Income

The Saltcreek Twp. budget will incur a general fund deficit balance of $3,266.53 unless the Pickaway County Budget Commission allows for additional tax money, according to Saltcreek's 1960 budget.

Expected 1960 receipts totaled $3,803.47 and expenses were listed at $7,070. The budget was filed July 14 by trustee clerk, Robert K. Hinton, who resigned soon after to accept the local State Liquor Store's manager post.

Estimated receipts to be obtained during next year's operation were the same, but a $1,881.53 deficit balance for 1959 business drops the total.

Expected 1960 expenditures are $2,480 less than in 1959, due to reductions of $800 in the Tarlton Cemetery permanent improvement fund and $1,500 in contribution to the public employees' retirement system.

ESTIMATED 1960 receipts with 1959 figures in parentheses are: balance, $1,881.53 deficit ($1,483.47); general property taxes, $4,000, same; sales taxes, $500 ($1,000);

Cigarette taxes, $90, same; inheritance taxes, $200, same; sale of cemetery lots, $200, same; cemetery bequest bonds, $95, same, and miscellaneous, $600, same.

Estimated 1960 expenditures with 1959 figures for comparison in parentheses are: trustees salaries, $4,000, same; trustees' expenses, $350, same;

Cemeteries — personal service, $1,000, same, and other expenses, $300, same; Whistler lights, $420, same; Memorial Day services, $25, same;

Workmen's compensation, $125, same, contribution to public employees' retirement system, $500 ($2,000), and County Board of Health, $350, same.

Road and bridge fund receipts were estimated at $5,524.21 and expenditures were listed at $8,000 for a $2,475.79 deficit balance.

MOTOR VEHICLE license tax fund receipts were expected to total $3,351.87 and expenses at $4,500 for a $2,475.79 deficit balance.

Gasoline tax fund receipts were listed at $6,647.63 for a deficit balance of $1,628.82.

Scioto Budget Breaks Even

No Balance Seen For 1961 Start

Scioto Twp. trustees expect no 1961 balance according to the 1960 budget filed with Pickaway County Auditor Mrs. Marvina H. Rhoades.

The budget was filed by trustee board clerk, S. E. Beers, July 29. It called for receipts and expenditures of $5,760 each.

The budget showed a reduction of $4,023.79 in beginning year balances from 1959 to 1960 to partially explain the drop in receipts of $2,853.19.

General property taxes were estimated to increase $1,613.21 while sales taxes were to remain the same and no estimate was made on inheritance taxes which were $442.60 for 1959.

1960 ESTIMATED expenditures were $2,593.18 less than in 1959 mainly due to the drop in town hall expenses of $1,793.18.

Estimated receipts for 1960 with 1959 figures in parentheses are: balance, $260 ($4,283.79), general property taxes, $5,000 ($3,386.79) and sales taxes, $500 or same as this year for the $5,760 total.

1960 estimated expenditures with 1959 figures in parentheses are: trustees' salaries, $5,200 ($5,200); trustees' expenses, $25, same; town hall expenses, $95 ($1,888.18); Cemeteries' expenses, $400 ($1,200) and lighting expenses, $40, same for a total of $5,760.

Road and bridge fund receipts and expenditures were equal at $8,574.06 for no 1961 balance.

Westfall Book Explains Tax

Brochures Ready For Fall Voters

The Westfall Board of Education yesterday began distributing a brochure containing the facts concerning the district's bond issue and current operating levy.

It is the Westfall Board's thinking that all the facts should be told and then let the voter decide for himself.

Westfall school officials today said that if voters or workers have any questions they are urged to contact board members, Citizens Committee members of executive head, Judson Lanman, for the answers.

The brochure explains the background of consolidation and the needs now that it is in effect.

"IN DECEMBER 1957, the schools of Atlanta, Darby, Jackson, Monroe, Muhlenberg and Williamsport were consolidated into the Westfall School District.

"The State Department of Education, by its periodic inspection of schools, has indicated that some high schools are going to be hard pressed to retain their present charters.

"Present high schools are faced with the task of employing teachers who are certified to teach several subjects, in order that the regulations of the State Department may be met.

"In some cases, it is necessary to have a teacher temporarily certified in a particular field, in order to fill the staff. Westfall has cases of teachers instructing in as many as four subject fields such as Latin, Industrial Arts, Math and Science.

"In some of our schools, due to the small enrollment, it is not economically feasible to offer some courses. An example of this is advanced math, if only two or three students wish to take it.

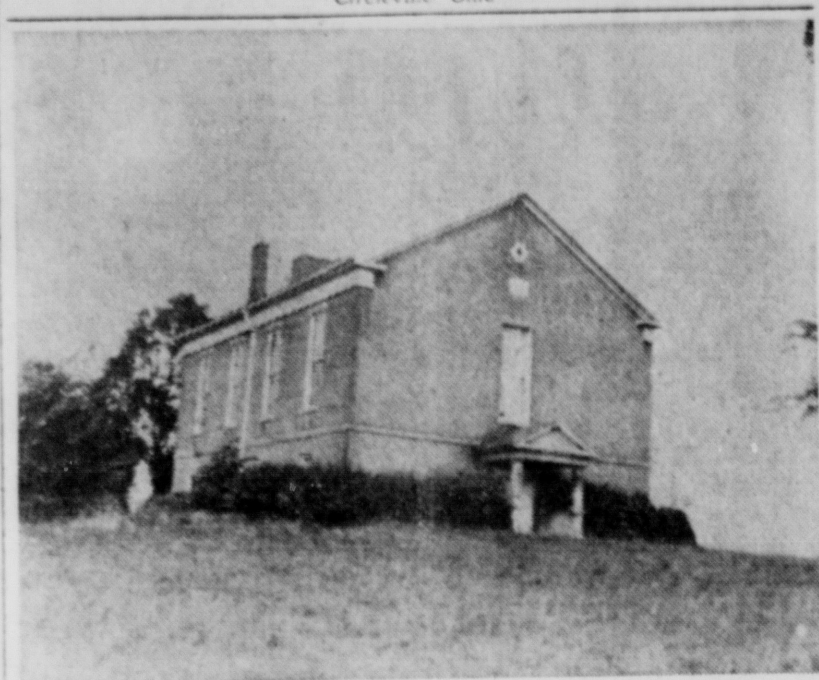

"Home economics, industrial arts, physics, chemistry and foreign languages are other examples of courses offering the problems of too few takers to offer it.

"STUDENTS WANTING and needing these courses should be given the chance of getting them. We have only one school in our district, namely Jackson, offering vocational agriculture.

"The proposed new high school will solve this problem, as there will be large enough enrollment to offer an expanded curriculum so that any student may follow the course he desires.

"The new school would permit each teacher to be instructing in his own field. In other words, a teacher who has a major in English, would be teaching only that subject and would not be forced to teach in other areas in which he may be only temporarily certified.

"In this respect then, we are faced with two problems: (1) Providing a curriculum that will meet

Mt. Pleasant Church Plans 100th Birthday Celebration

One hundred years ago a new brick church was built near Kinderhook by an active and God-fearing congregation.

Sunday, members of Mt. Pleasant Church will celebrate the 100th birthday of the old brick church.

A homecoming is planned, starting with a potluck supper at 6

p. m. The Yellowbud band will play.

All present and past members are urged to attend the 100th anniversary celebration. The public is invited.

Actually, today's church structure is the second to stand on the hilltop site. The first church, a small frame building, was completed in 1838. That first meeting house came into being 12 years after classes were formed in the area by the Rev. Jacob DeLay.

Red Cross Elects Executive Committee Here

The Pickaway County Chapter of the American Red Cross directors last night elected a chapter executive committee and secretary for the 1959-60 year.

James I. Smith III, 458 E. Main St., was named secretary. He and the other officers of the organization automatically are placed on the executive committee.

They are Chapter chairman Carroll Reid, Route 1, Ashville; Vice Chairman Arthur Dick, Route 1, Mt. Sterling, and Treasurer Everett Beers, Route 1, Ashville.

The three directors named to the executive committee were Dr. Robert G. Smith, 918 Circle Drive; Mrs. Paul F. Turner, Route 3, and Mrs. J. Boyd Stout, 812 Arbor Road.

MRS. ROLIFF Wolford, executive secretary, read the home service report for the past three months. Included in the report were eight health and welfare reports;

Seven requests for emergency leave and extension investigated; one assistance given for request for discharge; two reports for the Armed Services;

Seven miscellaneous inquiries; 15 counselling services done; six loans amounting to $360, and one grant totaling $65.

Mrs. Wolford explained that loans usually involved finances extended to military families whose allotment checks didn't arrive on time.

The Red Cross expects loans to be repaid, usually by installment in conjunction with the Armed Services. Grants are outright gifts of needed money that are not expected to be repaid.

Mrs. Stout reported on the Buckeye Council, which she attended September 16 in Newark. The main purpose of the Council is to obtain services and various donations for the Veterans Hospital, Chillicothe.

SHE SAID THAT the local Chapter was pledged for 100 birthday gifts and 150 Christmas gifts for the patients. Especially needed now for the veterans are paperback novels, cigarettes, stationery, novelties and puzzles.

Mrs. Stout related that members of the Gray Ladies are urgently needed to visit the hospital and offer their services. She and Mrs. Wilma Hughes visited the hospital Tuesday to investigate needs that possibly may be provided by the local area.

Mrs. Wolford and Mrs. Hughes were to attend the Association of Red Cross Chapters' meeting in Columbus today. This organization of central Ohio chapters attempts to offer mutual aid and suggestions among chapters.

It was reported that all but Perry and Saiterick Twps. have obtained solicitors for the 1959 Community Fund Drive, of which the Red Cross is one of the five benefiting agencies.

Westfall Book Explains Tax

Brochures Ready For Fall Voters

The Westfall Board of Education yesterday began distributing a brochure containing the facts concerning the district's bond issue and current operating levy.

It is the Westfall Board's thinking that all the facts should be told and then let the voter decide for himself.

Westfall school officials today said that if voters or workers have any questions they are urged to contact board members, Citizens Committee members of executive head, Judson Lanman, for the answers.

The brochure explains the background of consolidation and the needs now that it is in effect.

"IN DECEMBER 1957, the schools of Atlanta, Darby, Jackson, Monroe, Muhlenberg and Williamsport were consolidated into the Westfall School District.

"The State Department of Education, by its periodic inspection of schools, has indicated that some high schools are going to be hard pressed to retain their present charts.

"Present high schools are faced with the task of employing teachers who are certified to teach several subjects, in order that the regulations of the State Department may be met.

"In some cases, it is necessary to have a teacher temporarily certified in a particular field, in order to fill the staff. Westfall has cases of teachers instructing in as many as four subject fields such as Latin, Industrial Arts, Math and Science.

"In some of our schools, due to the small enrollment, it is not economically feasible to offer some courses. An example of this is advanced math, if only two or three students wish to take it.

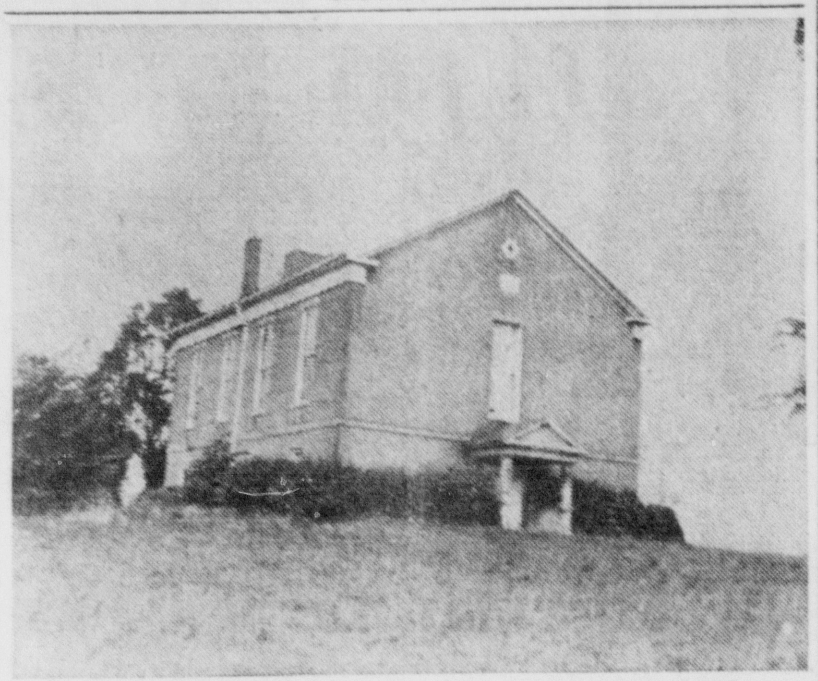

"Home economics, industrial arts, physics, chemistry and foreign languages are other examples of courses offering the problems of too few takers to offer it.

"STUDENTS WANTING and needing these courses should be given the chance of getting them. We have only one school in our district, namely Jackson, offering vocational agriculture.

"The proposed new high school will solve this problem, as there will be large enough enrollment to offer an expanded curriculum so that any student may follow the course he desires.

"The new school would permit each teacher to be instructing in his own field. In other words, a teacher who has a major in English, would be teaching only that subject and would not be forced to teach in other areas in which he may be only temporarily certified.

"In this respect then, we are faced with two problems: (1) Providing a curriculum that will meet

MT. PLEASANT — Just 100 years ago this church building was completed in the classic style of the pre-Civil War days. A 100th anniversary celebration is planned Sunday.

Mt. Pleasant Church Plans 100th Birthday Celebration

One hundred years ago a new brick church was built near Kinderhook by an active and God-fearing congregation.

Sunday, members of Mt. Pleasant Church will celebrate the 100th birthday of the old brick church.

A homecoming is planned, starting with a potluck supper at 6

p. m. The Yellowbud band will play.

All present and past members are urged to attend the 100th anniversary celebration. The public is invited.

Actually, today's church structure is the second to stand on the hilltop site. The first church, a small frame building, was completed in 1838. That first meeting house came into being 12 years after classes were formed in the area by the Rev. Jacob DeLay.

'Forgotten' Hurler Puts Bums Back In 1st Place Tie

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Los Angeles Dodgers have crashed through again for a first place tie in the National League pennant scramble, and their ace in the race is Roger Craig, a once forgotten, ruddy-faced right-hander.

It was Craig, pulled back from the minors in mid-June, who got the Dodgers started on their jump to the top by beating San Francisco 4-1 in the opener of that day-night doubleheader sweep over the Giants last Saturday.

And Wednesday night he pushed them back into a tie with Milwaukee, blanking St. Louis on five hits for a 3-0 victory after the Braves had stumbled for a 5-4 loss at Pittsburgh.

That Milwaukee loss, ending the Braves' streak at four games, also fanned a spark of life into the third place Giants, who trail by two games after a 9-8 loss in 10 innings to the Chicago Cubs—their fifth straight setback.

Each of the contenders has three games remaining. The Braves, however, play their's at home, meeting last place Philadelphia Friday night, Saturday and Sunday. The Dodgers finish at Chicago against the clubbing Cubs while the Giants, more dead than alive, finish at St. Louis. They all get a day off today.

The Dodgers, winning five of their last six, have put away 16 of their last 25 games, and Craig, leading the NL with a 2.12 earned run average, is 4-0 in that spurt. Southpaw Johnny Podres and reliever Chuck Churn each have won three, while Don Drysdale, the ace who tumbled, is 2-4.

Craig, 28, allowed the Cardinals just one extra-base hit, a third-inning double by Don Blasingame, and struck out five. He fanned Ken Boyer, the Cards' power guy, three times, twice with men on base.

The Braves, handed only their fourth defeat in 17 games, were tumbled after Ed Mathews' 44th home run, with a man on, had boomed them into a 4-all tie in the eighth. The Pirates then beat reliever Joey Jay (6-11) on consecutive singles by Bill Virdon, pinch-hitter Rocky Nelson and Bob Skinner in their eighth.

Ron Kline (11-13) was the winner—for a 5-15 career record against the Braves. He allowed six hits, but walked just one and struck out six in his eight innings. Elroy Face put away the save in the ninth.

The Giants, who must win all three remaining games and hope the Dodgers and Braves each lose two to gain even a tie, were beaten by Cal Neeman's home run, his third, with two out in the tenth. Rookie Ed Fisher (2-5), seventh Giant pitcher, was the loser. Don Elston (10-8) won it in relief.

The only other games in the majors were in the American League, where the pennant-winning White Sox were idle. New York beat Washington 5-4, Kansas City defeated Detroit 7-6 and Boston whipped Baltimore 4-0 on Jerry Casale's nine-hitter.

Braves Home For Try To Clinch Flag

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Milwaukee came home today to finish the National League season, tied for first place with the Los Angeles Dodgers and ready for anything.

Manager Fred Haney ordered all hands to report at County Stadium this afternoon. Instead of a day of rest on this open date, there will be a meeting and limited workout.

The Braves figure they have the best of the schedule. They finish with three home games against the last-place Phillies Friday night, Saturday and Sunday. Los Angeles plays three games at Chicago. San Francisco, two games back with three to go, winds up with three at St. Louis.

If the Braves and Dodgers march in stride there will be a best-of-three playoffs starting Monday in Milwaukee. If Milwaukee wins while the Giants and Dodgers lose in the final days, the Braves will open the World Series Wednesday at Chicago's Comiskey Park. If they flop, they can go home and watch the Series on TV.

Milwaukee four-game winning streak has been broken, but the Braves have won 13 of their last 17 games.

After Wednesday night's 5-4 defeat in their road finale at Pittsburgh, the Braves figure they must win all the rest to stay alive. They missed a chance to clinch at least a tie, so far as San Francisco is concerned, when they bowed to the Pirates.

Lew Burdette, will pitch for the Braves Friday night. It probably will be Warren Spahn (20-15) Saturday, and Bob Buhl (14-9) or Juan Pizarro (6-2) in Sunday's finale. Buhl failed Wednesday, giving way to Bob Rush after four innings. Joey Jay, however, was charged with the defeat.

Miniature Whisky Sales Set Up by State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Miniature and half pint bottles of whiskey will soon be available by special order in state liquor stores, says Liquor Director Richard C. Crouch—but only by the case and with a $5 fee for special handling added to the price. An order will have to be accompanied by a down payment of 50 per cent of the total bill.

Venturi Draws Eye In Frisco Tourney

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Ken Venturi just naturally commanded the most attention as the Golden Gate Championships opened here today with a field of 154 golfers, but to top it off he shot a hole-in-one Wednesday.

The No. 3 iron tee shot came on the 17th hole of Harding Park, scene of this $40,000 event, but to the thousands of public links golfers who usually play the course, it came on No. 8.

For Harding Park has reversed itself for the pros as they start on the back nine and wind up on the front.

Venturi and Jim Ferree of Crystal River, Fla., tied for low-pro honors in the pro-amateur tournament Wednesday. The low scoring team was long hitting pro George Bayer and singer John Raitt with a best-ball of 61, including Raitt's handicap.

Sam Snead and Cary Middlecoff will represent the United States in the International Golf Championship and Canada Cup Matches Nov. 18-21 in Melbourne, Australia.

Assortment Of Injuries Hits Tigers

Circleville's football Tigers, already faced with a lack of depth and experience, have run up against some injuries which may dim hopes for Friday's game with invading Rosary.

Definitely out will be center Pat Rooney, benched with a knee injury. Guard and Co-Captain Harold Arledge has been confined to light workouts this week due to a mild shoulder-separation suffered at Athens.

Fullback Larry Hannahs twisted his lame ankle Tuesday and came up limping yesterday. Starting Guard Dave Hicks was slowed down yesterday with a painful growth on his toe and replacement Tackle John Williams was out of pads with a bee sting or spider bite. Halfback Archie Ward was bothered with a sore back, but practiced with pads.

Practice yesterday was held to the light side, with the varsity concentrating mostly on playing-running and wind sprints for conditioning.

COACH Carl Benhase, pointing to the first home game, said, "We will have to play inspired football to stay even with Rosary. Their fine team speed and experienced players make them a threat from any point on the field", he added.

The Rosary squad blitzed Gahanna Friday night, 22-0, and will be looking for a repeat here. The Tigers will meet the challenge on the strength of their good physical condition and first home game determination.

Special guests on the Tiger bench Friday night will be School Board members Carl Leist, Robert Brehmer, Robert Elsea, Ray Davis and Mrs. Louise Heine.

School administrator guests seated on the bench with the local gridders will be Superintendent George A. Hartman, Principal J. Wray Henry and Assistant Principal Richard Snouffer.

An added attraction will be the opening of the 7th and 8th grade flag football season. The junior high gridders will battle at 7 p. m. The varsity game follows at 8 p. m.

Cubs Poised To Dig Grave For Dodgers

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs, having all but knocked the San Francisco Giants out of the National League pennant race, today prepared Operation Graveyard for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Playing the role of wreckers to the ultimate, the Cubs kayoed the Giants 9-8 in 10 innings Wednesday.

Giant Manager Bill Rigney, speaking without enthusiasm, could only say "We're still alive, they haven't counted us out yet."

But Rigney knew there will be no pennant for the Giants even though they retain a mathematical chance. He knew it's tough enough to catch one club but both Milwaukee and Los Angeles are ahead of the Giants.

"Our lack of relief pitching really showed up out there today," Rigney said. "But that has been our trouble all year."

Rigney was tossed out of the game in the seventh inning when he protested a call at third base. Willie McCovey doubled to left and was out when he tried for three bases and overslid third.

Rigney charged out of the dug-out and was thumbed out by Umpire Frank Dascoli.

The Cubs were now pointing for the Dodgers.

Manager Bob Scheffing said he enjoyed playing the role of wreckers but that he would rather be fighting for the pennant than for fifth place.

Junior High Flag Football Opens Today at CHS Gridiron

Circleville Junior High flag football opens today at the CHS gridiron.

Coached by Paul Sarchet, the flagballers will make their debut during halftime of today's reserve game with Grove City. The reserve tilt will start at 6 p. m.

Flag football is a new sports activity at Circleville, designed to give junior high grid hopefuls experience in gridiron fundamentals and tactics. Coach Sarchet has been working with the youngsters since shortly after the season started.

The game is similar to touch football, with the exception that a flag is pulled from a runner's belt to stop his progress. Here are the rules:

1. A TEAM consists of eight players. 2. Blocking or tackling is prohibited (screening permitted); penalty for this infraction is 15 yards or loss of down.
3. Four downs are allowed to gain 20 yards. 4. Defensive players must stay five yards back from the ball until it is snapped.

Cops Lebanon Prize

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Abbe Vo, owned and driven by Emmett Ebenhack of Circleville, edged home in front Wednesday night in a three-hour photo finish of the featured Class B pace at the Lebanon Raceway harness race meeting.

Shangri La Jack led through most of the mile but faded in the stretch. First Royal Heritage closed in, then Abbe Vo moved ahead as the three horses finished head-to-head.

Abbe Vo's time was 2:07 and she paid $14.40.

Mable Kilroy, driven by Charles Miller, won a co-featured Class B trot in 2:07 and paid $6.20.

The crowd of 1,802 wagered $48,561 through the mutuels.

There will be no racing at the track tonight to avoid conflict with the Little Brown Jug Grand Circuit classic during the afternoon at Delaware.

Trot Record Set In Delaware Race

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—Breaking a trotting record set a few minutes previously, Mystery Song — a rank outsider—won the feature race in the Grand Circuit harness event at the Delaware Fairgrounds Wednesday.

Jim Hackett drove the winner in its record 2:05 1-5 mile in the second heat of the sixth race. In the first heat, Mike Hanover had clipped the Ohio standardbred two-year-old trotting record, winning in 2:05 2-5.

Mystery Song, owned by Samuel Huttenbauer of Cincinnati, returned $58.80 to win. Stake for the race was $12,340.

Nike Hanover took third in the second heat. As the two heat winners prepared to race it off, veterinarians took Nike out of action, giving the trophy to Mystery Song.

Short Enters Lebanon Racing

Forrest Short, Route 3, will drive two horses at the Lebanon Raceway Friday and Saturday night.

Short will hold the reins of Raider Volo in the first race Friday night, a D Trot with a $400 purse. Raider Volo is owned by Edward Vollam, Worthington.

Saturday night, Short will drive Gaelic Gold in a D Pace for a $400 purse. Gaelic Gold is owned by Mrs. George W. Van Camp, 307 Oakwood Place. Post time at Lebanon is 8:15 p. m.

The Detroit Lions have 14 former Big Ten football players on their roster.

Cloud of Dust, Ohio Silver Mark Little Brown Jug Today

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—Thundering hoofbeats, a cloud of dust and "Ohio Silver" ($76,582 worth)—and the Little Brown Jug is on again at the Delaware County Fairgrounds.

The 14th pacing classic, with 18 entrants, starts at 2:45 p. m. (EST) today.

A crowd of 35,000 sulky fans is expected as the largest field battles for the largest purse ever offered in the race.

There's the air of mystery, too, as some wonder, "Will the Butler do it?"

They refer to Adios Butler, heavily favored pacer at 6-5 odds in the second of two divisions of the field. Owned by Page West, his trainer, and Angelo Pellillo of Snow Hill, Md., Adios Butler raced only seven times this year but took two jewels in pacing's triple crown by winning the Cane Futurity and Messenger Stakes. The Jug is the third.

Seventeen colts and one filly go today in the two-division pace. The first five horses in each division return for the third heat. Should each heat have a separate winner, the trio will decide the winner in a fourth heat.

The total purse is divided 30-30-30, or 30 per cent ($22,974.60) for each heat winner and 10 per cent ($7,658.20) to the final winner.

Rapid recovery from a severe leg sprain makes Meadow Al appear the top colt in the first division. The horse of trainer-owner Joe O'Brien nearly had been written off as a Jug starter.

The draw Tuesday placed Adios Butler in the middle of the line to face starter Riley Couch. The second division is rated by far the stronger of the two groups.

Hometown favorite Wayne (Curly) Smart has the only double entry in the pace. He drives Adios Day in the first division and Ohio Time in the second.

'Forgotten' Hurler Puts Bums Back In 1st Place Tie

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Los Angeles Dodgers have crashed through again for a first place tie in the National League pennant scramble, and their ace in the race is Roger Craig, a once forgotten, ruddy-faced right-hander.

It was Craig, pulled back from the minors in mid-June, who got the Dodgers started on their jump to the top by beating San Francisco 4-1 in the opener of that day-night doubleheader sweep over the Giants last Saturday.

And Wednesday night he pushed them back into a tie with Milwaukee, blanking St. Louis on five hits for a 3-0 victory after the Braves had stumbled for a 5-4 loss at Pittsburgh.

That Milwaukee loss, ending the Braves' streak at four games, also fanned a spark of life into the third place Giants, who trail by two games after a 9-8 loss in 10 innings to the Chicago Cubs—their fifth straight setback.

Each of the contenders has three games remaining. The Braves, however, play their's at home, meeting last place Philadelphia Friday night, Saturday and Sunday. The Dodgers finish at Chicago against the clubbing Cubs while the Giants, more dead than alive, finish at St. Louis. They all get a day off today.

The Dodgers, winning five of their last six, have put away 16 of their last 25 games, and Craig, leading the NL with a 2.12 earned run average, is 4-0 in that spurt.

Southpaw Johnny Podres and reliever Chuck Churn each have won three, while Don Drysdale, the ace who tumbled, is 2-4.

Craig, 28, allowed the Cardinals just one extra-base hit, a third-inning double by Don Blasingame, and struck out five. He fanned Ken Boyer, the Cards' power guy, three times, twice with men on base.

The Braves, handed only their fourth defeat in 17 games, were tumbled after Ed Mathews' 44th home run, with a man on, had boomed them into a 4-all tie in the eighth. The Pirates then beat

Braves Home For Try To Climb Flag

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Milwaukee came home today to finish the National League season, tied for first place with the Los Angeles Dodgers and ready for anything.

Manager Fred Haney ordered all hands to report at County Stadium this afternoon. Instead of a day of rest on this open date, there will be a meeting and limited workout.

The Braves figure they have the best of the schedule. They finish with three home games against the last-place Phillies Friday night, Saturday and Sunday. Los Angeles plays three games at Chicago, San Francisco, two games back with three to go, winds up with three at St. Louis.

If the Braves and Dodgers march in stride there will be a best-of-three playoffs starting Monday in Milwaukee. If Milwaukee wins while the Giants and Dodgers lose in the final days, the Braves will open the World Series Wednesday at Chicago's Comiskey Park. If they flop, they can go home and watch the Series on TV.

Milwaukee four-game winning streak has been broken, but the Braves have won 13 of their last 17 games.

After Wednesday night's 5-4 defeat in their road finale at Pittsburgh, the Braves figure they must win all the rest to stay alive. They missed a chance to clinch at least a tie, so far as San Francisco is concerned, when they bowed to the Pirates.

Lew Burdette, will pitch for the Braves Friday night. It probably will be Warren Spahn (20-15) Saturday, and Bob Buhl (14-9) or Juan Pizarro (6-2) in Sunday's finale. Buhl failed Wednesday, giving way to Bob Rush after four innings. Joey Jay, however, was charged with the defeat.

Joe Gordon Back at Helm Of Indians

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Joe Gordon, the old and new field manager of the Cleveland Indians; his boss, Frank Lane, and practically all the team's fans here agreed today: "Peace—it's wonderful."

Differences between Gordon and the general manager were big enough six days ago to cause Joe to announce formally he wouldn't work for Lane another year.

Then came a long talk Wednesday between the two. The differences were reconciled.

And now Gordon has signed to work another two years as Cleveland's field pilot and at a salary unofficially reported to include a $10,000-a-year raise to $40,000.

The two-year term was Lane's idea, Gordon said, adding: "He must think I'm a better manager than he sometimes says I am."

"After summing everything up, I decided that the best man to succeed Joe Gordon was Joe Gordon," said Lane at a news conference.

Gordon had been relieved Tuesday night after the Indians were eliminated mathematically from the pennant race.

"We were just two hot-heads in a pennant race," Gordon explained to the assembled newsmen. "We sat down and had a long talk and completely ironed out our differences. I guess we even surprised ourselves."

Venturi Draws Eye In Frisco Tourney

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Ken Venturi just naturally commanded the most attention as the Golden Gate Championships opened here today with a field of 154 golfers, but to top it off he shot a hole-in-one Wednesday.

The No. 3 iron tee shot came on the 17th hole of Harding Park, scene of this $40,000 event, but to the thousands of public links golfers who usually play the course, it came on No. 8.

For Harding Park has reversed itself for the pros as they start on the back nine and wind up on the front.

Venturi and Jim Ferree of Crystal River, Fla., tied for low-pro honors in the pro-amateur tournament Wednesday. The low scoring team was long hitting pro George Bayer and singer John Raitt with a best-ball of 61, including Raitt's handicap.

Sam Snead and Cary Middlecoff will represent the United States in the International Golf Championship and Canada Cup Matches Nov. 18-21 in Melbourne, Australia.

Assortment Of Injuries Hits Tigers

Circleville's football Tigers, already faced with a lack of depth and experience, have run up against some injuries which may dim hopes for Friday's game with invading Rosary.

Definitely out will be center Pat Rooney, benched with a knee injury. Guard and Co-Captain Harold Arledge has been confined to light workouts this week due to a mild shoulder-separation suffered at Athens.

Fullback Larry Hannahs twisted his lame ankle Tuesday and came up limping yesterday. Starting Guard Dave Hicks was slowed down yesterday with a painful growth on his toe and replacement Tackle John Williams was out of pads with a bee sting or spider bite. Halfback Archie Ward was bothered with a sore back, but practiced with pads.

Practice yesterday was held to the light side, with the varsity concentrating mostly on playing-running and wind sprints for conditioning.

COACH Carl Benhase, pointing to the first home game, said, "We will have to play inspired football to stay even with Rosary. Their fine team speed and experienced players make them a threat from any point on the field," he added.

The Rosary squad blitzed Gahanna Friday night, 22-0, and will be looking for a repeat here. The Tigers will meet the challenge on the strength of their good physical condition and first home game determination.

Special guests on the Tiger bench Friday night will be School Board members Carl Leist, Robert Brehrer, Robert Elsea, Ray Davis and Mrs. Louise Heine.

School administrator, guests seated on the bench with the local gridirers will be Superintendent George A. Hartman, Principal J. Wray Henry and Assistant Principal Richard Snouffer.

An added attraction will be the opening of the 7th and 8th grade flag football season. The junior high gridirers will battle at 7 p. m. The varsity game follows at 8 p. m.

Cubs Poised To Dig Grave For Dodgers

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs, having all but knocked the San Francisco Giants out of the National League pennant race, today prepared Operation Graveyard for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Playing the role of wreckers to the ultimate, the Cubs kayoted the Giants 9-8 in 10 innings Wednesday.

Giant Manager Bill Rigney, speaking without enthusiasm, could only say "we're still alive, they haven't counted us out yet."

But Rigney knew there will be no pennant for the Giants even though they retain a mathematical chance. He knew it's tough enough to catch one club but both Milwaukee and Los Angeles are ahead of the Giants.

"Our lack of relief pitching really showed up out there today," Rigney said. "But that has been our trouble all year."

Rigney was tossed out of the game in the seventh inning when he protested a call at third base. Willie McCovey doubled to left and was out when he tried for three bases and overslid third.

Rigney charged out of the dug-out and was thumbed out by Umpire Frank Dascoli.

The Cubs were now pointing for the Dodgers.

Manager Bob Scheffing said he enjoyed playing the role of wrecker but that he would rather be fighting for the pennant than for fifth place.

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—Breaking a trotting record set a few minutes previously, Mystery Song—a rank outsider—won the feature race in the Grand Circuit harness event at the Delaware Fairgrounds Wednesday.

Jim Hackett drove the winner in its record 2:05 1-5 mile in the second heat of the sixth race. In the first heat, Nike Hanover had clipped the Ohio standardbred two-year-old trotting record, winning in 2:05 2-5.

Cloud of Dust, Ohio Silver Mark Little Brown Jug Today

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—Thundering hoofbeats, a cloud of dust and "Ohio Silver" ($76,582 worth)—and the Little Brown Jug is on again at the Delaware County Fairgrounds.

The 14th pacing classic, with 18 entrants, starts at 2:45 p. m. (EST) today.

A crowd of 35,000 sulky fans is expected as the largest field battles for the largest purse ever offered in the race.

There's the air of mystery, too, as some wonder, "Will the Butler do it?"

They refer to Adios Butler, heavily favored pacer at 6-5 odds in the second of two divisions of the field. Owned by Page West, his trainer, and Angelo Pellillo of Snow Hill, Md., Adios Butler raced only seven times this year but took two jewels in pacing's triple crown by winning the Cane Futurity and Messenger Stakes. The Jug is the third.

Seventeen colts and one filly go today in the two-division pace. The first five horses in each division return for the third heat. Should each heat have a separate winner, the trio will decide the winner in a fourth heat.

The total purse is divided 30-30-10, or 30 per cent ($22,974.60) for each heat winner and 10 per cent ($7,658.20) to the final winner.

Ohio Escapee From Dixie Is Recaptured

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—An Ohio convict who escaped from the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary Sunday night was nabbed by police on a Zanesville street early yesterday.

Officers said the man identified himself as Frank Lewis Rush, 29, of Steubenville, Ohio, who broke out of the Atlanta prison while most of the other inmates of his cell block watched a movie.

Rush was serving two years for interstate transportation of a stolen car. And it was an automobile stolen from Lexington, Ky., that led to his arrest. A state highway patrolman spotted the car parked at a filling station and notified police. A short time later a local resident complained he saw someone trying to steal his automobile.

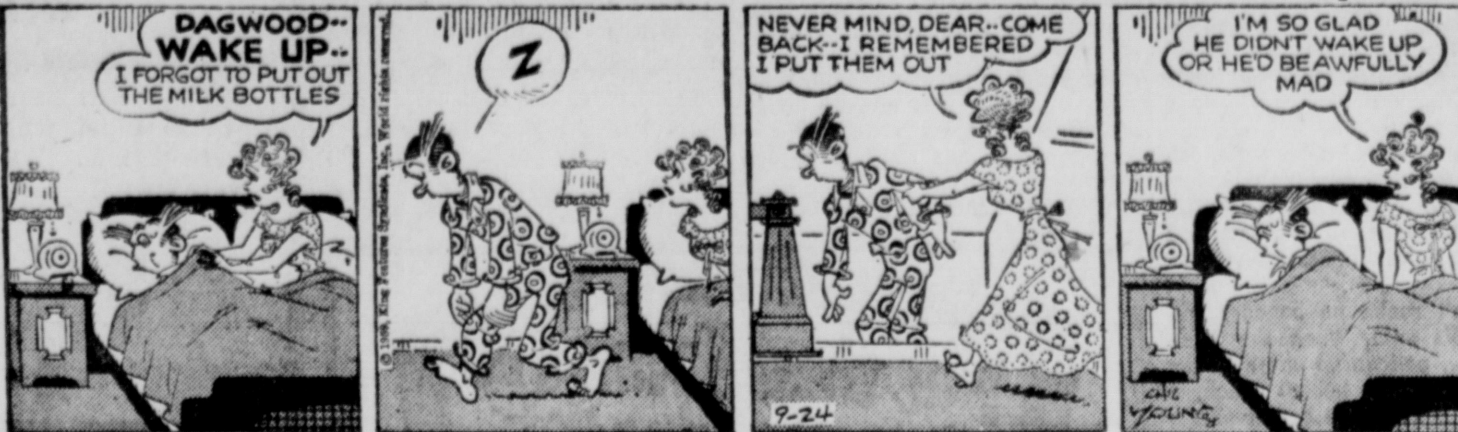

Officers stopped Rush as he walked along a street. The man started to run, but when caught, officers said, he admitted his identity at once.

Atlanta prison authorities said Rush had been assisted in his escape by two companions who apparently helped him use a steel pipe to separate the bars on a window at the end of the cell block. A window glass was broken, and Rush went out, climbing over a picket fence to escape across a field. Guards captured the other two men.

Ohio Escapee

From Dixie

Is Recaptured

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—An

Ohio convict who escaped from the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary

Sunday night was nabbed by police on a Zanesville street early yesterday.

Officers said the man identified himself as Frank Lewis Rush, 29, of Steubenville, Ohio, who broke out of the Atlanta prison while most of the other inmates of his cell block watched a movie.

Rush was serving two years for interstate transportation of a stolen car. And it was an automobile stolen from Lexington, Ky.,

that led to his arrest. A state highway patrolman spotted the car parked at a filling station and notified police. A short time later a local resident complained he saw someone trying to steal his automobile.

Officers stopped Rush as he walked along a street. The man started to run, but when caught, officers said, he admitted his identity at once.

Atlanta prison authorities said

Rush had been assisted in his escape by two companions who apparently helped him use a steel pipe to separate the bars on a window at the end of the cell block. A window glass was broken, and Rush went out, climbing over a picket fence to escape across a field. Guards captured the other two men.

After 24 Years Freedom, Escapée To Pay His Debt

LONDON, Ohio (AP) — Glenn Landis, who served as a marshal and postmaster while he was wanted as an escaped killer, is not one to begrudge paying off a debt, even if that debt is his freedom.

The 64-year-old, mild-mannered—even timid—life term, who escaped from London Prison Farm 24 years ago, accepted his re-arrest in Oregon two weeks ago “without feeling, almost.”

There, as Jesse Glenn Sandolval, he tried to forget his past and even served a year as marshal of a small town called Juntura, and postmaster of another village, Crane.

“I didn’t make no bones about it,” Landis said, when the Medford, Ore., policeman came to the home of the high school coach, a friend with whom he had lived for 10 years, and asked for him by his real name.

“I knew there was no use to fight it. I got up out of my chair and went with him.

“He was just doing his job,” Landis said.

Landis was convicted in Wooster of first degree murder and sentenced to life in Ohio Penitentiary. He said he killed the husband of a woman with whom he had become intimate.

That was in 1917, and Landis was 22 when he entered prison.

In 1931 he was transferred to the London Prison Farm.

At first, his relatives—his father, two brothers, and a sister—visited him and wrote to him. That lasted about two years and then stopped.

Landis became depressed.

“I didn’t have any hope at all,” he said.

So the honor prisoner walked away from the farm one Saturday afternoon in 1935. He had served 18 years.

Working his way across the country as a farm hand, orchard worker, railroad section hand and wood cutter, Landis arrived in Oregon many months after his escape.

With money he earned, he set up a barber shop in Juntura, Ore., where he also served as marshal for a year.

Later he bought part interest in a repair garage in Crane, Ore., became a postmaster and finally moved to Gold Hill in 1949 to live with his coach-friend and family.

Working at odd jobs (“I did any kind of work I could get”) Landis suffered a paralyzing stroke in 1950. He recovered and later worked part-time in the Medford city park system. Landis and the coach’s family had moved there in 1958.

Then, last June, Landis was floored by a severe heart attack. It led to his arrest.

Since he was now unable to work, Landis applied for a veteran’s pension. He had served before World War I in the National Guard.

But Landis had to give his real name and submit his fingerprints on the pension application. They eventually were matched against those of the wanted escapee.

Landis said he nearly succeeded in forgetting his past. “I almost forgot my own name,” he said. He never told anyone about his record, but when he was arrested his friends did not desert him.

“I didn’t know til I got in jail how many people were my friends,” he said.

Now his fate is up to the Ohio Pardon and Parole Commission. He will be eligible for parole in 1961. Landis is hopeful.

“I led a clean life and I always made it a point to associate with clean people,” he said of his post-escape life. And he never had been arrested since escaping.

“When I do get out again, I’ll be free,” he said. “They (his Oregon friends) expect me back.”
